Veteran Investors and Financial Advisors Join SharesPost Management Team

SAN FRANCISCO – April 2, 2012 – SharesPost, Inc., the market for today’s fastest growing companies, has appointed Randall Baum, Dave Crowder and Garrett Paul to key management positions within the organization.

As Vice Presidents of Business Development, Baum and Crowder will help innovative private growth companies utilize SharesPost to manage shareholder liquidity programs and raise primary capital. They will also help develop new fund products marketed on the SharesPost platform.

As Vice President of Private Client Sales, Paul will help late-stage company executives navigate the private market and develop sales strategies for their shares through retail and institutional buying channels. He will also focus on continuing SharesPost’s growth among buyers and sellers in Silicon Valley.

“SharesPost is actively hiring accomplished professionals in all areas of our business. With their diverse experience fostering, analyzing and investing in private growth companies, Randall, Dave and Garrett bring tremendous value to the companies, shareholders and investors doing business with and through SharesPost,” said Greg Brogger, founder and president of SharesPost. “Their expertise will help connect cutting edge private companies with the largest and most diverse network of qualified institutional and individual investors.”

About Randall Baum

Randy Baum has more than 30 years of experience in the investment management business with major financial firms, including Kidder Peabody, Morgan Stanley, Montgomery Securities and Banc of America Securities. He previously specialized in the management of client assets for ultra-high-net worth individuals and their families, helping clients generate liquidity and manage risk associated with concentrated, illiquid securities positions.

Most recently, Randy was Managing Member of Exponent Capital LLC and the Managing General Partner of Exponent Partners LP, and was co-founder of Sanctuary Wealth Services, a vendor-service platform for breakaway advisors and established wealth management firms.

Randy has BA and MA degrees from Miami University, holds FINRA Series 7, 24, and 63 licenses and is a Registered Investment Advisor.

About Dave Crowder

Most recently, Dave worked as an Advisor to GSV Asset Management, a growth-focused investment firm that manages the publicly-traded, late-stage venture capital fund, GSV Capital, which is an investor in SharesPost. Previously, Dave was a Managing Director of Thomas Weisel Venture Partners, a $250 million venture fund which he co-founded.

SHARESPOST

Dave was a founding partner and Managing Director of Thomas Weisel Partners where he worked as a technology investment banker. Prior to TWP, he co-headed Montgomery Securities' Software and Internet Group before the firm was acquired by Bank of America. Dave started his professional career as an investment banking analyst at Goldman Sachs.

Dave has a degree in finance from the University of Utah and an MBA from Harvard Business School.

About Garrett Paul

Garrett is an experienced financial strategist with a strong track record in providing high quality financial advisory services to clients. Throughout his career, Garrett has focused on increasing sales and building revenue, introducing new financial services and products to his companies' portfolios and establishing key industry relationships that expanded his companies' customer bases. Garrett joins SharesPost from Morgan Stanley, where he was a top-ranked financial advisor associate whose success was attributed to his reputation and extensive network within late-stage growth companies in Silicon Valley. Prior to Morgan Stanley, Garrett worked as a supply chain engineer for TaylorMade-adidas Golf, he has also worked as a stock option trader, a research project manager at Stanford University and as an analyst with Toyon Research Corporation.

Garrett holds a BS in mechanical engineering from UC Santa Barbara and an MS in mechanical engineering from Stanford University. He also holds Series 7 and Series 66 licenses.
